Foreword

The 1968 Mennonite Yearbook should report, if the Lord tarries, 100,000 as the total membership of the Mennonite Church, if the present rate of growth continues.

This issue of the Yearbook reports the total number of members at the close of 1960 as 86,333, an increase of 1,946 over last year. This growth represents a 2.3 per cent increase.

The population growth is approximately 1.8 per cent per year. According to the 1959 Yearbook of American Churches, the Protestant rate of annual increase is about 2.1 per cent; the Catholic, about 3.7 per cent.

You will note on page 50 that approximately 5,500 members were added to the church rolls at home and overseas. Thus it takes about 16 members to add one member to the church roll, if we want to use figures.

The overseas churches (foreign missions) show a membership of 6,059, an increase of 831 over last year. This is a 16 per cent rate of increase as compared with 2.3 per cent for the entire church.

You will find two new features in this issue of the Yearbook. The first has to do with the arrangement of congregations alphabetically in more of the conferences. Because of bishop districts we developed a way of identification of the bishop with the congregation. This new system is employed in the Indiana-Michigan, Allegheny, and South Central conferences. We are especially grateful to John C. Wenger for his encouragement and suggestions in the development of this coding system.

The second feature is the listing of the district officers of the Women's Missionary and Service Auxiliary. Formerly, this information appeared in the Prayer Guide. With the discontinuance of the Prayer Guide and the starting of Family Worship, the Mennonite Yearbook now carries this information regarding WMSA.

The Mennonite Relief and Service Committee has been placed in the section of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities along with their other committees and organizations at the request of the Board.

Again we wish to take this opportunity as editors to thank sincerely all officers and others who helped to revise the statistical and other data in this issue of the Yearbook. Back of these "cold" figures and lists of names and organizations we feel there is a "warmth" and "glow" of the Spirit at work in His church. With this editorial viewpoint, we prayerfully commend this 1961 Yearbook to all who find it useful and stimulating in their faithful efforts for Christ and the church.–Z.

The Mennonite Church at the Beginning of 1961

By Paul Erb, Executive Secretary of Mennonite General Conference

The Mennonite Yearbook is largely limited to information about the Mennonite Church, which is the largest (86,333 members) of a number of related groups in America which use the Mennonite name. This article gives an over-all description of the Mennonite Church at the beginning of 1961.

The organizational pattern of the Mennonite Church is diagramed on p. 6. A small number of congregations which consider themselves a part of our denomination are not attached to any conference. But most of the 663 organized congregations belong to one of the twenty conferences which are members, or eligible for membership, in Mennonite General Conference. Member conferences appear on the chart under the solid line. Conferences under the broken line have not yet affiliated, but are considered a part of the denomination; and are counted in the statistical data in this Yearbook.

All but one of these conferences elect representatives on the General Council of Mennonite General Conference. The Council usually meets four times in each biennium to discuss issues and to take interim action. All of the twenty conferences elect representatives on the Mennonite Publication Board, and most of them participate actively in the work of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities and the Mennonite Board of Education.

A great deal of the denominational program is carried on by these three boards. They are autonomous, i.e., not organizationally responsible to Mennonite General Conference, as the broken lines indicate. They report their work to General Conference, and since their constituency is the same, operate within its standards. Co-ordination of the church program is secured through the General Council, on which the boards have membership, and especially through the Council's Committee on Co-ordination of Church Program. So, while the Mennonite Church does not have a centralized program, it can and does have a co-ordinated program.

To keep the chart simple, we have not diagramed the organization of the boards, beyond showing the connection of a few subsidiaries. The chart does not show the subsidiaries of Mennonite Mutual Aid, which functions under General Conference.

Mennonite General Conference

The Mennonite General Conference maintains its headquarters office at Scottdale, Pa. Its meetings are biennial. The next meeting will be held at Johnstown, Pa., August 22-25, 1961. Member conferences may elect to send to General Conference one delegate for each 200 members. Bishops in conferences eligible for membership, but not yet affiliated, are delegates ex officio. Members of the General Council are also delegates. Delegates attending the 1959 conference in Goshen, Ind., totaled 220.

The General Council met once in 1960—at Chicago September 22, 23. The next meeting will be at Johnstown, August 21, 22, 1961.

General Conference operates on an annual budget of $70,000, given by the constituency on a basis of $1.50 per member plus 50¢ per Sunday-school enrollee.

The organizational personnel of General Conference may be seen on page 8.

Mennonite Mutual Aid and its subsidiaries care for a number of economic needs within the brotherhood. Its combined balance sheets as of November 30, 1960, show total assets exceeding one and one-half million dollars. The business is carried on in a church-owned building at Goshen, Ind.

Mennonite Aid Inc., has hospital-surgical membership of 21,276 adults and 14,559 dependents, and 2,300 adults and 1,975 dependents in burial aid. Total claims paid for 1960 were $802,279.66. Mennonite Automobile Aid, Inc., has 3,427 vehicles registered and paid in the year 1960 claims of $76,478.22. The Mennonite Foundation gives a service to those who want to deposit funds for later giving, and added during the past year a service of estate planning. Mennonite Church Buildings, Inc., during the past fiscal year loaned funds totaling $82,640 for construction of churches and institutional buildings of the church. Mennonite Aid Insurance, Inc., is one of the newer services—survivors' aid.

All of these are methods by which the Mennonite Church practices its principle of mutual aid.

Mennonite General Conference participates in the Schowalter Foundation, which contributes from its income funds for theological scholarships and the support of senior church workers.

The Mennonite Commission for Christian Education has the important responsibility of promoting Christian education on the congregational level. The special emphasis in 1960 was "Unity of the Spirit." The 1961 emphasis is "Preparing and Sharing Church Workers." Good progress is being made on a study of the strengths and weaknesses of the nurture of our youth.

The Commission sponsored the sixth church-wide Sunday School Convention held at Goshen, Ind., August 4-7. The fall session of the Commission was held in connection with this meeting. The spring meeting in 1961 will be held at Scottdale, Pa., April 28, 29.

Mennonite Youth Fellowship, which functions under the direction of the Commission, held its annual meeting at Hesston, Kans., August 18-21. The 1961 meeting will be held at Lebanon, Oreg., August 17-20. The field worker who serves the Youth Fellowship is supported jointly by the Commission and the Relief and Service Committee under the Mission Board.

The 1960 conference on Christian community relations sponsored jointly by the Mennonite Community Association and the Committee on Economic and Social Relations, was held at Croghan, New York, April 29 to May 1. This year's conference will be held at Metamora, Ill., March 3-5.

The first Secretary of Stewardship has been appointed by General Conference, and will begin full-time service in this important area July, 1961. He will work under the direction of the Committee on Co-ordination of Church Program.

Important items to be considered by General Conference are a statement of faith, a position on the remuneration of church workers, a statement on the divorce and remarriage problem, and a progress report on the revision of the Church Hymnal. A committee is making a much-needed study of our worship practices.

Mennonite Publication Board

The Mennonite Publication Board, one of three autonomous church-wide boards of the Mennonite Church, held its 1960 meeting at Scottdale, Pa., in March. The 1961 meeting will be held at Doylestown, Pa., March 24-26.

There are more than 200 workers in the literature services of the church. Sales in 1960 totaled $2,046,800, an increase of $228,900 over the previous year. The gross assets of our publishing business are over $2 million.

The new graded Sunday-school materials went into use on all levels in October. An excellent graded course from nursery to intermediates is now available. A weekday Bible school series is in preparation.

The past year saw the beginning of a new monthly periodical, the Builder, with Ellrose Zook as editor. It replaced three other periodicals, and is designed for preachers, teachers, and all local church officers.

Books and pamphlets published in 1960 were How God Heals, by Paul M. Miller; Christian Nurture of Youth, by Ada Brunk and Ethel Metzler; Called to Maturity, by Myron Augsburger; Judaism Meets Christ, by Roy Kreider; For One Moment, by Christmas Carol Kauffman; The Church Apostolic, by J. D. Graber; God Leads Us to Witness at Home, by A. Grace Wenger; Adventures with the Buttonwoods, by Edna Beiler; and Grief's Slow Work, by Harold E. Bauman.

Publications listed for 1961 include Brothers in Christ, by Fritz Blanke (a translation from the German); a commentary on Revelation, by the late J. B. Smith (edited by J. Otis Yoder); Mennonites of Indiana and Michigan, by J. C. Wenger; a book on the nature of the Church and its discipleship, by Harold S. Bender; and a mission study text on Latin America by A. Grace Wenger.

Translations of Herald Press books have been published in foreign countries during the past year: Alpha and Omega, by Paul Erb, in Japan; and Glimpses of Mennonite History and Doctrine, by J. C. Wenger, in Argentina.

In addition to the overseas store in Ethiopia branch bookstores were opened in Tanganyika and Brazil during the year. First steps were taken to transfer Agape-Verlag, our publishing center in Europe, to European Mennonites.

A quarterly periodical, Family Worship, will begin publication in April, 1961, with Paul M. Lederach as editor.

Mennonite Board of Education

The Mennonite Board of Education operates Goshen College, Hesston College, and Goshen College Biblical Seminary.

In 1960 the new seminary building was completed. This building also houses the valuable Mennonite Historical Library and Archives, and the offices of the Historical and Research Committee of Mennonite General Conference.

Also completed during 1960 were T. M. Erb Hall at Hesston and C. Z. Yoder Hall at Goshen, residence halls for men.

Both colleges are now operated by boards of overseers, with the Board of Education holding title to all properties, controlling all invested funds, and establishing policies for operation.

A high school is being constructed at Kidron, Ohio, by the Ohio and Eastern Conference. The school will open in September, 1961. The enrollment in our ten church high schools exceeds the total enrollment in our three colleges.

The annual meeting of the Board was held at Goshen, Indiana, October 21, 22, 1960. Assets of the Board are over $4½ million. All the colleges, including Eastern Mennonite College, operated by the Virginia Conference, have the largest enrollments in their history.

Harold S. Bender wrote the Conrad Grebel lectures for 1960 on "The Anabaptist Concept of Church and Discipleship." The lectures will be given at our three colleges early in 1961. The Conrad Grebel Lectureship Committee is a subsidiary of the Board of Education. It also controls the Funk Lecture, the first of which will be given in 1961.

Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities

The headquarters of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities are at Elkhart, Ind. Organizationally the Board administers its work in foreign missions, home missions, and literature evangelism through departments headed by secretaries. Three areas—Relief and Service, Mennonite Broadcasts, and Health and Welfare—are administered by committees. In 1961 the Board will have for the first time a full-time Secretary for Literature Evangelism.

Overseas mission work is carried on either directly or in co-operation with a district mission board. There are missions in a score of countries with nearly 200 missionaries. It is the policy of the Board to have small groups of missionaries in many places, and to encourage the early assumption of responsibility by new churches. During the year responsibility was transferred from mission to church in Puerto Rico and Tanganyika (the latter under the Eastern Board of the Lancaster Conference). Steps are being taken toward the organization of a conference in Japan, and of the Toba United Evangelical Church in the Argentine Chaco.

The 1960 annual meeting was held at Lansdale, Pa., in June. The 1961 meeting will be held at Morton, Ill., June 22-25.

Total mission giving for the year was almost $3 million. More than half of this was to district boards. The general board's current budget requires from its constituency an average of $30 per member, including offerings designated for radio and relief and service.

The Eastern Board, serving the Lancaster Conference, is the chief missionary agent for one fifth of our membership, and supports missions in Tanganyika, Ethiopia, Luxembourg, France, Honduras, Somalia, and Vietnam. The Conservative Board has mission work in Germany and the Pacific Coast Board works in Mexico. The Virginia Board has mission work in Italy and Jamaica. The Franconia Board works in Cuba and Mexico. The two latter Boards' work is in co-operation with the General Mission Board.

Mennonite Broadcasts, Inc., a department of the Elkhart board, with headquarters at Harrisonburg, Va., broadcasts ten different programs through about 250 outlets in eight different languages. Free correspondence courses are administered from both Harrisonburg and Elkhart, and in various foreign countries in a total of five languages.

The Health and Welfare Committee administers five senior homes, seven hospitals, two children's homes, and a home school for educable mentally deficient children. At Hesston, Kansas, Schowalter Villa, a facility of the latest type for senior church workers, is under construction.

The thrust of the Relief and Service Committee is in three areas: participation in Mennonite Central Committee foreign relief and services, services to men in I-W service, and Voluntary Service, which has approximately 170 workers in 31 locations, including five foreign countries.

Inter-Mennonite Activities

The Mennonite Church carries on a number of activities in co-operation with other Mennonite groups.

Chief means of this co-operation is Mennonite Central Committee, with headquarters at Akron, Pa., where a new office building will be ready for use this year. Co-operating groups number 19. MCC carries on an extensive overseas program of relief and rehabitation in 29 countries. Its Peace Section co-ordinates the peace work of the various groups, especially in government contacts. It participates in the National Service Board for Religious Objectors, which maintains an office in Washington. MCC helps in the resettlement of Mennonite refugees and in maintaining contacts with Mennonites behind the Iron Curtain. In the United States it has led out in a mental health program. Mennonite mental hospitals are now in operation at Reedley, Calif., Newton, Kans., Hagerstown, Md., and Lebanon, Pa. Another will be built this year at Elkhart, Ind.

MCC carries on a program of voluntary service at home and abroad. Particularly effective is the Pax program in lieu of military service. Last year 87 men were building houses and roads, doing hospital and other humanitarian work, teaching better agricultural methods, and a variety of other tasks.

Total receipts of MCC in 1960 were $2,864,443. Of this amount, $911,600 was composed of gifts in kind—donated meat and clothing—and $948,665 worth of government surplus food. The 1961 budget is $1,035,223 not including material aid and institutions.

The Seventh Mennonite World Conference will be held in Kitchener, Ont., in 1962.

Four groups of Mennonites are participating in the preparation and uses of the graded Sunday-school course. We co-operate with other groups in the Conference of Historic Peace Churches in Ontario, the Association of Mennonite and Affiliated Colleges, the Mennonite Research Fellowship, the Association of Mennonite Hospitals and Homes, the Association of Mennonite Aid Societies, Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminaries, the Association of Mission Board Secretaries, and the Association of Mennonite Social Workers. Mennonite Biblical Seminary in Uruguay, for which a new location has just been purchased, is inter-Mennonite, and foreign missionaries in several fields have inter-group relations. We have co-operated with European Mennonites in publishing and Bible school work. In America there have been a number of evangelistic campaigns in which the various groups have co-operated.

Directions

Growth and change continue to be seen in almost every phase of the life and work of the Mennonite Church. Outreach and wider testimony are everywhere in evidence. But changes, and perhaps an accommodation to a worldly society, bring many tensions. During the year a score of leaders and several congregations withdrew from their conference affiliations. But there are also evidences of a growing sense of unity, and a seeking for greater spiritual effectiveness. Great doors of opportunity are open before us, which we are responsible to enter.

*The above tabulation represents contributions received by the treasurer of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities including contributions received directly by the city missions and charitable institutions under the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities. Charitable contributions include only contributions that were received by the treasurer and not payments made by patrons of the charitable institutions. Other contributions not included in this tabulation are annuities and district board contributions not forwarded to the treasurer at Elkhart. Most of the contributions under General Fund of missions have been used for home work. Figures are for the fiscal year ending April 1.

†Total for CPS—$1,485,387.15.

BOOKS TO ENRICH YOUR LIVING

CALLED TO MATURITY

by Myron S. Augsburger

The author presents God's provision for spiritual growth and shows how we can appropriate them to our own living. $2.50

THE NURTURE AND EVANGELISM OF CHILDREN

by Gideon G. Yoder

How can we rear children of Christian parents into the Christian faith through nurture and evangelism without permitting their faith to become secondhanded? Mr. Yoder discusses many things that are involved in this question. $3.00

THE CHRISTIAN NURTURE OF YOUTH

by Brunk-Metzler

Gives insights into development and growth of young people and suggests practical methods of approach. Provides help to think problems through to valid conclusions. $3.00

JESUS AND HUMAN CONFLICT

by H. A. Fast

Here you will see what the every day character and attitude should be for the person in whom the rule of God has become a living, working reality. This is one of the best books ever published dealing with the positive side of non-resistance. A soul searching study! $3.75

THE CHURCH APOSTOLIC

by J. D. Graber

What is a missionary church? What is her message? What are her tasks? The author clears away the debris (institutionalism, denominationalism, materialism, colonialism, organizationalism, nationalism) which has covered Christendom and allows the light of truth to flood her soul. The church is the habitation of God and through the Spirit she is directed of God. A challenging book for those who would be challenged. $3.00

The Mennonite Encyclopedia

A modern reference work on Anabaptist and Mennonite history.

This encyclopedia covers the 435-year history of the faith, life, and culture of Anabaptists in Europe and the Mennonites throughout the world. It presents men, movements, and places in their relation to the Mennonites. A few of the many articles covered are Arminianism, Baptism, Baptist, Calvin, Church, Communion, Congo, Deaconess, Education, Farming, Furniture, Grebel, Hubmaier, Hymnology, Industry, Literature, Marriage, Nurnberg, Ordinances, Publishers, Reedley, Russia, Schmidt, Seminaries, Sunday School, Tazewell County, Ukraine, Virginia Conference, Waldner, Worship, and Zurich.

The Mennonite Encyclopedia has been jointly edited by historians and scholars of the three major North American Mennonite bodies, the Mennonite Church, the General Conference of Mennonites, and the Mennonite Brethren Church. More than 2,700 writers have contributed articles to this reference work.

The four volumes contain 3,880 pages in which appear 14,000 articles, 463 illustrations, and over 100 maps of Mennonite communities in Europe, North America, South America, and other parts of the world. Brief articles treat more than 2,000 known Anabaptist martyrs—Swiss, German, Austrian, and Dutch.
